

Third Party Provider Disclosure

You must accept agreements which apply when you access and connect your Alpaca Clearing & Custody Canada Ltd., ("ACCC") account with the third party provider application. You must also specifically provide permission that the third party provider is able to view information about your account held with Alpaca and that this information will be shared with them including but not limited to account daily cash balances, daily trade activity, & daily account positions. This means that the third party application will have access to all information related to your account held with Alpaca however ACCC will remain the registered investment dealer of record and any questions related to your account should be direct to Alpaca Canada at 437-371-8115 or via canadacompliance@alpaca.markets